

"We Appreciate" – I wrote this for my upcoming album...

But now that the whole country and world is appalled at George Floyd's murder, I can't hold it in – Wrote it a year ago but it's hella relevant...

Had to rush it out now in case anyone needs to hear it at this exact time...

Call it a sneak peek of my new music... and our collective future too – hopefully.

Thank you for listening.

And if you like this track, and would like to listen to more music from my two official albums, you can check them out at:
